Mr. Bull also served as Executive Director and Senior Counsel of The European Center for Law and Justice in Strasbourg, France from mid-1998 to 2000. There he assisted religious liberty attorneys throughout Europe in human rights litigation under the European Convention on Human Rights before the European Court of Human Rights. Mr. Bull also supervised an office of four attorneys in Moscow, Russia practicing in the area of religious liberties.

Mr. Bull was General Counsel of the American Family Association Law Center ("AFA"), located in Tupelo, Mississippi from 1990 to 1993. Mr. Bull served as Legal Counsel and ultimately as General Counsel of the Children's Legal Foundation ("CLF") from 1984 to 1989. CLF was a public interest legal organization concerned with the victimization of children and women through pornography. In that capacity, he litigated cases involving First Amendment issues related to pornography in state and federal courts across the country.

Mr. Bull served as Deputy County Attorney for Fairfax County, Virginia from 1981 to 1984, where he was a principal litigation attorney for a large county in the metropolitan Washington, D.C. area.

In 1975 Benjamin W. Bull graduated from the University of South Carolina Law School (J.D.).

Mr. Bull has practiced extensively in the First Amendment area. For most of the last fifteen years his practice has focused almost exclusively on First Amendment issues. He receives numerous telephone calls and letters from attorneys and non-attorneys alike on a daily basis asking for his counsel and assistance in First Amendment cases or potential cases.
